

I signed up to be placed on the Do Not Call List as soon as it became available. I strongly object to the the fact that the Federal Communications Committee is considering overturning this bill. This bill alleviated years and years of unwanted telephone solicitations at all hours of the day and night. The overturning of this bill obviously is for the benefit of the telemarketers and not for the interest of the general public who are entitled to their privacy.